

Dine below the line

While you dine, take some time to learn about Oaktree...

Dine Below the Line is a campaign by Oaktree. We're young people leading a movement to end poverty, and by sitting around your dinner table with your friends and family, dining on $2 per head, you are joining our movement.

Did You Know?

- $35 Can buy school textbooks for 12 children
- $52 Can fund a student's scholarship
- $100 Can buy a student's uniform and class materials for 3 years
- $500 Can train two teachers in Timor-Leste or Cambodia

All funds raised will go toward Oaktree's poverty-fighting activities.

Partner organisations in Cambodia, Timor-Leste and Papua New Guinea, whose education and advocacy work enables thousands of young people in our region to break free from the poverty cycle

Campaigning work in Australia: Giving thousands of young Australians the tools, knowledge and platform they need to create change on the issue right here, and lobbying our politicians for fair and just policies.

Fundraising as well as the vital costs of accountability and administration, to make sure we're still here to make this work happen.
